Sports Correspondent CLEAR LAKE – Heading into their game October 15th, the Bulldogs were looking to do a few things. Tune up for the playoffs, stay healthy, and get a victory over a scrappy Clear Lake team.

"I knew Clear Lake was going to come out and battle tonight. Their record does not indicate how tough they are," coach Michael Roemhild indicated. "They have a bigger line and some fast running backs."

While Boyceville did get out to a slow start, they were able to score on three consecutive possessions to start the second half and cruise to a 29-0 victory over the host Warriors.

"Overall, I think we were flat on the night. We can't come out like that in the playoffs, or there will be no tomorrow," commented Roemhild on the Bulldogs sluggish start.

Even though they were a bit flat, all three units had great efforts to contribute to the win. The defense held Clear Lake to only 93 total yards on the evening, the offense had 225 yards rushing, and the special teams contributed a kickoff return for a touchdown that put Boyceville over the top.

While possessions were at a premium, Boyceville only had eight, their dominant line and backs controlled the pace of the game.

"Tyler, Nick, Braden, and Bash ran hard all night," Roemhild said. "Up front our line battled the whole night."

The Bulldogs first drive of the night would consist of 16 plays for 63 yards and would consume 10:54 of game time. However, a run on fourth and three by Braden Roemhild would come up short and the Bulldogs would turn the ball over on downs.

While Boyceville came away empty on that initial drive, it would set the tone for the evening. The Bulldogs converted on two fourth down attempts on that drive and demonstrated the power rushing attack that would carry them through the game.

The Bulldogs would start their next possession on the Warrior 36-yard line after Peyton Ponath recovered a Clear Lake fumble.

ON HIS WAY TO SIX — Boyceville's Caden Wold (#10) is shown returning a kickoff 84 yards in the third quarter for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs ahead 16-0 in their road contest against Clear Lake October 15. —photo by Joel DeWitt

With the short field, it would only take Boyceville four plays to find the endzone and the 8-0 lead. The drive was highlighted by a 9-yard rush by Bash Nielson for a first down and an 18-yard touchdown rush by Nick Olson. Tyler Dormanen would take it in from three yards out for the PAT.

The Bulldog defense would control things for the remainder of the half. They would hold Clear Lake on downs on their next possession and then Caden Wold would intercept a pass from Warrior QB Jacob Burbach to end the half.

"Defensively, I thought the guys were focused and played well," commented Roemhild. "When they tried to throw, I thought Ira, Braden, Caden and Jack shut down their receivers. Caden came up with two big interceptions for us as well."

The second half would start out big for the Bulldogs when Roemhild took the second half kickoff and handed it off to Wold who proceeded to take it 86-yards for the touchdown and the 16-0 lead.

"Caden gave us a huge energy boost when he took the opening kickoff of the second half to the house," Roemhild mentioned. "I thought we executed our wall to perfection, and he read it great."

That would be all that the Bulldog defense needed. The three Clear Lake possessions of the second half would see them not advance the ball farther then their own 36-yard line and would results in two punts and a turnover.

Meanwhile, the offense would continue to pound the ball down the field. Dormanen would score from ten yards out after an eight play 60-yard drive. The touchdown would put the score at 22-0 with 1:58 remaining in the third quarter.

The next Boyceville drive would see them only have to go 34 yards in three plays for the touchdown. This time Olson would dive in from four yards outs. Boyceville would attempt a rare kicking extra point, and Brayan Vasquez-Martinez would convert to extend the lead and conclude the scoring at 29-0.

Olson led on rushers on the evening with 72 yards on nine carries and the two touchdowns. Nielson added 63 yards.

"I am very proud of these guys. We ended the regular season 5-2 in conference and 7-2 overall," proclaimed Roemhild. "That makes back-to-back winning seasons and back-to-back playoff appearances."

The victory secured a five seed in the division 6 playoffs that is scheduled to begin October 22nd. They will travel to fourth seeded Cumberland that finished second in the Heart O'North Conference.

"We are disappointed that we didn't get a home playoff game but are looking forward to the challenge and hope to see as many people as possible in their purple at Cumberland next Friday.

Kickoff for this opening round game is set at 7 p.m.

UWSP Homecoming/First Hunt

Hello friends,

We all know that in life much of our existence is wrapped around family and friends. This week's adventure changed a month before it happened, and everything turned out just fine.

So, I was going to take 13-yearold Johnny Andes on his first deer hunt which in this case was a pretty big deal. Johnny is the son of Michelle Chiaro and Ron Andes, had never shot a gun until two weeks before this hunt and our original plan was to do a canoe deer hunt, camping trip on the Chippewa River. That plan changed when my daughter Selina who is a junior at UWSP asked me to attend the homecoming football game and a lot of fun activities after the game with her five roommates and their parents.

Long story short, Johnny's hunt became a Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon adventure to my food plot.

Saturday, October 9th High 75, low 53

All credit for Johnny's shooting lessons goes to his mother Michelle Chiaro. She fast tracked him with a semi-automatic Savage 22 and finished the job with her Remington 742 "30:06" and let me tell you this kid can hit the target. The training took place on the ground and in a tree stand.

This morning I got Johnny out of bed at 5:00 am and we were in two tree stands that were placed next to each other and has been the case all fall, it was very warm. We did not see a deer, when I got home, I had 30 minutes to get ready for the other part of my day and just like that I was bound for Stevens Point.

Selina lives with five girls that are all seniors in a very nice house and in all honesty they are like sisters that get along well, know how to peg out the fun meter, and are very successful.

Three of the gals are on UWSP's dance team, all six gals had their parents here today for the game, a dance performance at half time and lots of fun afterwards. Raegan Babcock, Julia Perock, and Natalie Kuhaupt are on the dance team along with a bunch of other gals. It was very cool to feel and see the honor and respect they have for what has been up to 18 years of dance for one of them and to listen to the grueling practice schedule of four times a week of 2.5 hours of practice each time and the national awards they have earned for their effort.

I sat in the stands with Selina, Isabel Negaard, Kaylee Huberty, all the parents and a lot of this groups friends. The dance team's performance was flawless and the look on all the parents faces told it all, as they watched their daughters in what is probably the last year of their dancing careers.

After the game we went to another celebration in a large tent that was set up by Partners Bar which is a very popular watering hole in Stevens Point.

I met dozens of really impressive people, laughed my head off, danced my feet off, and later the whole herd of us walked 1.5 miles back to the gals house and it seemed like every yard had festivities taking place.

The next morning, I was awake at five and soon after started wandering the streets looking for my truck. That was a long journey in itself which was followed by a drive home where I stopped at a farm as I am looking for some calves to buy. That stop paid off except I got bit by a dog and this worn-out redneck got home in time to take Johnny on an afternoon hunt.

Michelle sat in a tree next to us as she wanted to be a part of this experience. We saw three deer but did not get a shot.

I have to tell you, the kids at UWSP are extremely impressive. The Pointer football team is not having a real good year so I am thinking of enrolling next fall as a freshmen, becoming the quarterback and bringing a national championship to UWSP.

I have always said that if you do things with your kids in the outdoors that your kids will be your friends when they are adults.

Bulldogs earn first D-SC volleyball win with five-set victory over Toppers

Coming into last Tuesday's volleyball match, neither Boyceville nor Glenwood City had picked up a win in the Dunn-St. Croix standings.

But someone would earn their first conference victory of the season when Boyceville welcomed Glenwood City to the Dog House October 12 for the rival's annual volleyball showdown.

The match went all five sets before the host Bulldogs prevailed to earn their first Dunn-St. Croix win of the season.

The two teams both finished the regular and conference seasons two nights later with straight set losses - Boyceville fell in Mondovi while Glenwood City lost at home to conference champion Colfax - leaving the Bulldogs with a 1-6 mark in the D-SC while the Hilltoppers are 0-7.

As in previous seasons, the rivals battled hard throughout last Tuesday's match.

Boyceville stormed out of the gates and dominated the opening set taking a 25-16 win.

The scenario flipped in set number two as Glenwood City took the early lead and held on to it for a 25-18 win to even things up.

The final three sets were barn burners.

The host Bulldogs prevailed 26-24 in the third set only to see the visiting Hilltoppers knot the match at two sets apiece and force a fifth set with a 25-21 victory in the fourth game.

The final set was a back-andforth affair with the Bulldogs finally closing out the match with a 15-11 victory.

Seniors Libby Bygd and Ella Holden led the offensive charge for Boyceville as they tallied 16 and ten digs, respectively.

Harper Olson helped charge Boyceville's offensive attacks with 29 of the team's 33 assists. Boyceville also had a seasonhigh 20 ace serves in the Glenwood City match with Olson responsible for nine of them and five from Torrie Bland.

Defensively, the Bulldogs had a whopping 73 digs over the fiveset match led by Ella Holden's 19. Bland added a dozen and Haley Hanestad and Bygd finished with nine and eight, respectively.

There were no team or individual stats posted for Glenwood City.

Glenwood City did win both the junior varsity and C-team matches against Boyceville. GC's JV won all three sets -25-12, 25-21, and 15-9 as did the C-team by scores of 25-12, 25-4, and 15-7.

Glenwood City crushes Colfax, moves into WIAA playoffs

by Marlys Kruger Sports Correspondent

GLENWOOD CITY — The Glenwood City football team needed one more win in Dunn-St. Croix Conference play to be assured of getting into the WIAA playoffs.

In their final regular season game, which happened to be on Homecoming night, the Hilltoppers made sure there was no doubt they would achieve that goal when they thrashed the 1-7 Colfax Vikings 55-0 to bring their record to 4-3 in conference play and 5-4 overall.

The Toppers will travel to Turtle Lake for a Division 7, Level 1 playoff game this Friday night. Glenwood City defeated Turtle Lake 24-12 back on September 3.

The Vikings had been having a pretty rough season with two of their losses coming via forfeits due to COVID issues early in the season and they never seemed to recover from missing two weeks of practice. So it was pretty fair to say this game was determined on the opening kickoff when Max Janson took the ball at his own 14 and ran right up the gut of the Viking defense for an 84yard touchdown. Marcis DeSmith booted the extra point and before many of the fans even found their seat it was 7-0 with just 13 seconds off the clock.

On the Vikings' first possession, they ran twice and picked up a first down, but on the next play they fumbled and Brady McCarthy recovered for the Toppers on the Colfax 39 yard line.

McCarthy, Janson and Gabe Knops all took turns running the ball and with a Colfax penalty they eventually moved to the two yard line. Janson then passed to Mitchell Bliese for the TD and another DeSmith kick made it City forced them to punt. 14-0 midway through the first quarter.

The Vikings decided to keep the ball on the ground and had some success against the Topper defense, moving the ball from their own 20 to the Topper 41, but a pair of penalties on them and a quarterback sack by Glenwood

Moving into the second stanza, the Toppers started with the ball at their own 43 and ate up almost six minutes on the clock with their ground game culminating in a two-yard score by Janson. DeSmith's third kick went through the uprights for a 21-0 lead with 6:44 on the clock.

The Vikings were without their starting center after he went out on an injury on their prior possession, and on this possession the backup center hiked the ball over his quarterback's head on a third-down play. McCarthy tackled the quarterback for a loss and Colfax punted the ball away.

Starting on another short field, Janson, Knops and McCarthy all ran the ball and Janson took it up the middle from 26 yards out for yet another Topper TD. The kick put the score at 28-0 with 3:37 left

The Hilltoppers weren't done yet however, after forcing another Viking punt, McCarthy did a little shake and bake and ran for a long gain and Bryce Wickman took it to the house from 15 yards out and the kick put the score at 35-0.

It was all Hilltoppers in the second half (again) as the Vikings chose to try and keep running the ball, resulting in very few positive yards. Another short punt by them gave the Toppers good field position again at the Colfax 35. Justin Moe eventually found the endzone from seven yards out and a kick put the Topper advantage to 42-0 halfway through the third Another bad snap by the Colfax center resulted in a fumble on their next turn with the ball and Thomas Moede recovered for the Toppers at the Colfax 24. But Colfax recovered a Topper fumble two plays later. And yet another bad snap by the Vikings put the ball on the ground and the Toppers Brady Klatt picked it up and ran it in for six more points. The kick made it 49-0 to end the quarter.

Moe finished off the scoring with a nine-yard run with 6:53 to go in the game as DeSmith missed his final kick.

The Toppers rushed for 264 yards in the game as Janson collected 91 of them. Moe ran for 64 and McCarthy 60. Janson threw just one pass and completed it for two yards and a touchdown.

Bliese was credited with four tackles and Noah Brite two while Bryce Wickman and McCarthy each had an interception and Moede had two quarterback sacks. (Stats from Wissports.net)

Topper boys finish as runners-up, girls third at D-SC meet

MONDOVI - The Glenwood City boys' and girls' cross country teams both had a pair of top five individual finishers in the 2021 Dunn-St. Croix Conference held in Mondovi last Thursday.

Junior JJ Williams and senior Austin Nelson finished third and fourth, respectively, to help lead the Hilltopper boys to second place in the conference competition held October 14 at The Valley Golf Course. Glenwood City finished with a score of 52 just eight points behind the winning team from Spring Valley which came out on top in the six-team event after scoring 44 points. There were 65 runners in the boys' field with defending state champion Parker Schneider, a senior from Durand, capturing the individual crown with a run of 17:02.4, 28 seconds faster than runner-up Ian Hazen of Elk Mound.

Meanwhile, in the girls' race that featured seven complete squads, Glenwood City scored 88 points to come in third highlighted by fantastic finishes by its senior duo of Bella Simmons and Kendall Schutz.
