

OBITUARIES

Janice M. Giese

Janice M. Giese, age 81, passed away Feb. 4, 2021, at Heritage Senior Living in Middleton, Wis.

GIESE

She was born May 14, 1939, in Conover, Wis., to Leonard and Pearl (Thresher) Johnson.

Janice graduated from Eagle River High School in 1957.

She attended Marquette University—School of Dentistry where she obtained her degree as a dental hygienist.

She married her high school sweetheart, Michael Giese, in September of 1961 and they made their home in Middleton where they raised three daughters.

In addition to working as a dental hygienist over the years, and being a wonderful mother, Janice enjoyed baking, crafting, vacations in the Northwoods and Door County, helping with her church, and playing with the grandkids and grandpups.

Janice was preceded in death by her husband, Michael; and her eldest daughter, Kelly Westrick.

She is survived by her brothers, Robert, Lowell, and Keith Johnson; her daughters, Sandy (Bret Cors) and Christl (Gerald) Eggleston; her grandchildren, Sydney and Ty Westrick, and Kira and Rowan Eggleston; and other nieces, nephews and many good friends.

A gathering of family and friends was held, Sept. 27, at the Cress Center in Madison, Wis.

Please share your memories at www.cressfuneralservice.com.

PAID OBITUARY 5681

Beverley Rose Klemp

Beverley Rose Klemp, age 77, of Eagle River, Wis., passed away Sept. 22, 2021, at Friendly Village in Rhinelander, Wis.

KLEMP

Beverley was born on Jan. 13, 1944, in Green Bay, Wis., to Lewis and Margaret (Welch) Price.

Beverley (Price) married Herbert J. Crabtree on Dec. 3, 1966, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Beverley was married to Herbert until his passing on Nov. 12, 1971.

Beverley married Raymond R. Klemp on Aug. 26, 1972. They remained married until Raymond's passing on Oct. 5, 2000.

Beverley was preceded in death by her parents; and brothers, Victor, Bernard and Harold Price.

She is survived by her children, George (Bonnie) Crabtree of Sugar Camp, Wis., Norma Jean Garski of Waukesha, Wis., and Faron (Heather) Crabtree of Eagle River.

She is also survived by three granddaughters, Stephanie Garski of Waukesha, Morgan and Dakota Crabtree of Eagle River; sister, Mickoleen Korman of Sturgeon Bay, Wis.; stepchildren, Bonnie McCurley, Donna Smith, Dale Klemp from the Milwaukee area, Jim Klemp from Washington and Rae Jean Klemp from Massachusetts.

A funeral service was held Sept. 28, at Gaffney-Busha Funeral Home in Eagle River.

Arrangements by Gaffney-Busha Funeral Home, Eagle River. Online condolences may be expressed at gaffney-busha.com.

PAID OBITUARY 4591

Frederick R. Moore

Frederick R. Moore of Phelps died Thursday, Sept. 16, 2021.

He was born Oct. 17, 1937, in Antigo, to Dr. George and Jessie Moore.

Mr. Moore graduated from Antigo High School. Shortly thereafter he enlisted in the U.S. Navy.

He enjoyed his career as a welder with Mercury Marine and his time spent obtaining his private pilot's license.

Mr. Moore was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, William; and two half-brothers, George and Donald.

He is survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins. Private family services were held.

Gaffney-Busha Funeral Home in Eagle River is serving the family.

NEWS

WTC: FROM PAGE 1A

of Vilas County or the Three Lakes and Sugar Camp areas of Oneida County can apply for winter clothes.

A two-part eligibility application can be found in the Oct 6 News-Review. It must be filled out, dated and initialed before turning it in. The form will run for the next three Wednesdays in the North Woods Trader.

Applications also are available at the News-Review's front office.

Local generosity

The program would not be possible without the generosity of full-time and seasonal area residents, as well as clubs and organizations.

Fundraising efforts for the 2021 season have officially begun and the goal this year is $80,000.

Donations can be mailed to Vilas County News-Review, P.O. Box 1929, Eagle River, WI 54521; dropped off at the News-Review's office, located at 425 W. Mill St. in Eagle River, or made online at vcnewsreview.com.

Monetary donations are tax-deductible and under the auspices of the Eagle River Rotary Club Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

"Every dollar donated is used to buy winter clothing," said News-Review Publisher Kurt Krueger. "The News-Review is picking up all administrative costs and is making all arrangements."

The dollar limit for each child age 2 to 17 is $190, and the limit for those younger than 2 years of age is $95.

"This is an example of neighbors helping neighbors," said Krueger. "We're asking our readers, service clubs and businesses in Vilas and Oneida counties to help buy new winter clothing.

"Each monetary donation, regardless of size, will make a difference. It can be $5, $20, $100 or more. All donations will be recognized in the newspaper, unless the donor wishes to remain anonymous," he said.

Donations can be made in honor of someone or in memory of loved ones.

"Another great part of this program is the use of volunteer shoppers," said Krueger. "We welcome anyone who can donate their time."

For more information or to volunteer as a shopper, contact Toni Ruthven at (715) 479-4421 or tonir@vcnewsreview.com.

"Purchases are limited to clothing items such as coats, footwear, mittens, scarves, sweaters and other basics. Extravagant purchases are not permitted," Krueger said.

Memorial set for Roberts

A celebration of life for Judith Roberts will be held Saturday, Oct. 2, at 1 p.m. at O'Brien's Pub in Eagle River.

The public is welcome to attend and refreshments will be served.

Ms. Roberts was born Jan. 9, 1945. She died Sept. 21, 2021, at Seasons of Life in Woodruff. She was 76.

ROBERTS

William Samuel Jones

William Samuel Jones passed away at Whispering Pines in Plover, Wis., on Sept. 21, 2021, at the age of 82.

JONES

He was born in Racine, Wis., on May 17, 1939, the son of William Samuel Sr. and Elizabeth (Daniel) Jones, both of whom preceded him in death.

William grew up on Villa Street on Racine's south side, where he attended Winslow Elementary and Franklin Junior High Schools.

He graduated from Washington Park High School in 1957. While at Park he participated in football, intramurals, A cappella, band (sax), student council and core Club.

Following graduation Bill served his country in the U.S. Air Force (USAF). It was there he found his life's calling as a firefighter, while a member of the 839th Installations Squadron, Sewart Air Force Base, Smyrna, Tenn.

During his four-year hitch he received several promotions and was named Base Airman of the Month several times. He eventually held the rank of Airman 1st Class and was made Crew Chief, in charge of a company of six firefighters.

Citations received during this time credited him with "Superior conduct in the performance of fire protection and administrative duties." William's military commitment ended in August 1961.

On Nov. 18 of that year he was appointed to the Racine Fire Department. During the next seven years he served on engine, truck and rescue companies.

William's association with the department's Fire Prevention Bureau began with promotion to Fire Inspection Records Officer effective Jan. 1, 1968.

Two years later he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant; one of the youngest department members to hold that rank. In his role as a fire investigator Bill rose to national prominence and was widely recognized as an expert in the field.

During his years in the Bureau, Bill investigated some of Racine's most significant fires, including the Camelot Supper Club, Goldblatt's Department Store and Taster's Choice Restaurant.

He played an integral role in the development of the Racine County Arson Control Unit. He was also an active member and office holder for Racine Fire Fighters Local 321.

Bill reached the pinnacle of his career in 1987 when he was promoted to Division Chief in charge of the Fire Prevention Bureau. He served in this capacity until retirement from the department in 1990.

On March 24, 1973, William was united in marriage to Gail (Seifert). Together they raised their family on Racine's north side until retirement offered the opportunity to relocate to their beloved "cabin in the woods."

Bill's passion in his spare time was woodworking. He became an accomplished carver at an early age, even building a small house for a local man while still in the USAF.

Bill spent years renovating and expanding their retirement home on the shore of Moon Lake.

Bill and Gail moved to St. Germain, Wis., in 1990. He continued his affiliation with firefighting by joining both the St. Germain and Eagle River, Wis., fire departments.

During his time there he was instrumental in introducing modern prevention, inspection, and investigative procedures to those respective departments.

Bill spent many years monitoring dams in the area and served as a weather data collector and spotter and was a member of American Legion Post 114 in Eagle River.

Above all Bill loved meeting daily with friends on the coffee shop circuit and spending time with family.

Bill leaves to cherish his memory, Gail, his wife of 48 years; two sons, Steven (Judith) of Racine and Gregory of Stevens Point, Wis.; three daughters, Theresa (David) Simpson of Jacksonville, Fla., Gayle (Brad) Stewart of Stevens Point and Susan Lemut, of Racine; 10 grandchildren, Sara Mae Simpson (Christian) Guzman Sanchez, Emily Simpson (Christopher) Duffy, Sara (Jake) Ivanoski, Christopher Jones, Alex (Callyn) Hauptert Stewart, David Stewart, Cavan Jones, Marcie Lemut, Noelle Lemut and Calum Lemut; and two great-grandchildren, Bailey and Cassidy Ivanoski.

William is further survived by his brother, John (Fran) Jones of Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.; nephews, David (Maria) Jones, Bryan Jones; and niece, Karyn (Jordan) Ekelin.

Many beloved cousins and distant relatives can be found across the United States.

A funeral service was held Sept. 27 at Gaffney-Busha Funeral Home in Eagle River. Interment was at St. Germain Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family would appreciate donations in Bill's name to their local fire departments.

Arrangements by Gaffney-Busha Funeral Home, Eagle River. Online condolences may be expressed at gaffney-busha.com.

PAID OBITUARY 4589

Gerald 'Jerry' Struck

Gerald "Jerry" Struck, 48, of Campbell-sport, Wis., found peace on Thursday, Sept. 16, 2021.

STRUCK

He was born on Dec. 6, 1972, to Glenn and Mary "Betty" (née Kopsanski) Struck in Phelps, Wis.

Jerry grew up in Conover, Wis., and graduated from Northland Pines High School.

On May 20, 2006, he was united in marriage to Bobbie Serba in Allenton, Wis.

He enjoyed fixing things and teaching others what he knew. Jerry loved the outdoors, fishing, shooting sporting clays and going four-wheeling with family.

He especially enjoyed spending time with his family and two boys and will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Those Jerry leaves behind to cherish his memory include his loving wife, Bobbie Struck; his two boys, Spencer and Hudson Struck; his parents, Glenn and Betty Struck; a sister, Cindy (Karl) Olson; sister-in-law, Jodie (Kevin) Bushey; brother-in-law, Josh (Sarah) Serba; his father- and mother-in-law, Tom (Jackie) Serba; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

A private family service will be held.

Memorials in Jerry's name to Donate Life are appreciated by the family.

The family would like to thank the nurses and staff at Froedtert Hospital for all their help and care.

Please consider signing our online guest book (www.myrhum-patten.com) to share your condolences with the family.

Cards addressed to the family may be sent in the care of Myrhum-Patten Funeral and Cremation Service, 1315 W. Washington Street, West Bend, WI 53095.

Myrhum-Patten Funeral & Cremation Service has been entrusted with Jerry's arrangements. Additional information and guest book may be found at www.myrhum-patten.com.

PAID OBITUARY 5680

Gerald Walter Kehl

Gerald Walter Kehl of Sayner died Wednesday, Sept. 22, 2021. He was 79.

KEHL

He was born May 8, 1942, and raised in Racine.

He graduated from Racine Horlick High School in 1960 before attending UW-Madison. He graduated with a bachelor's degree from Milton College and was a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

Mr. Kehl worked as a mortgage banker at Mortgage Associates, Washington Mutual and MGIC in Milwaukee. He retired in 2004.

He enjoyed bowling, golfing, fishing and hunting, as well as vacations with his family.

After living in Muskego for 30 years, Mr. Kehl moved into his home on Plum Lake in 2006. He was president of the Sayner-Star Lake Lions Club.

Mr. Kehl was preceded in death by his parents, Walter and Ellen.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Jo Ann (née Maas) of Sayner; one son, William Gerald (Trish) of Waukesha; one grandson; two nephews and many cousins.

The funeral will be held Friday, Oct. 1, at Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church in Sayner. Visitation will be at 10 a.m., and a service at 11 a.m., followed by burial at Star Lake Cemetery and luncheon at the church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church and Plum Lake Emergency Medical Services in Sayner.

A celebration of life is set Wednesday, Oct. 6, from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Cleveland Pub, located at 14000 W. Cleveland Ave. in New Berlin.

Bolger Funeral and Cremation Services of Woodruff is serving the family.

Obituary policy

Death notices are written and/or edited for content and consistency by the Vilas County News-Review and Three Lakes News. Obituaries written in the paper's format are printed free. Unedited obituaries may be printed for a fee. For more information, call (715) 479-4421.

Thinking of shopping early for the holidays?

...That's a darn good idea!

(We work hard to make sure our shelves are full and you always have a 5-star shopping experience!)

Grandma's Toy Box Eagle Craft & Hobby
Downtown Eagle River (715)-477-2227 Open every day at 10:00a.m.
Yes, EVERY day...361 days a year!