

A win to remember for Blackhawk volleyball

B-W sees season end in sectional final

2021 will be a season to remember for those associated with the Baldwin-Woodville volleyball program.

A share of the Middle Border Conference title, the first time they've won conference in 10 years.

A regional title, the first time that's happened since 1989.

An appearance in the sectional final, where the Blackhawks were attempting to earn a state berth for the first time since 1988.

While the goal of a state berth fell one game short as Reedsburg defeated B-W in the sectional final Saturday, the short-term pain of that loss will be dwarfed with the achievements earned.

"This was an awesome season for a lot of reasons, but our seniors of Angela Nilssen, Anna Jordt, Brianna Hanson, Brooke Klatt, Kate Groskreutz and Maddy Jensen made it so enjoyable," B-W

St. Croix Central junior Kaitlyn Carlson placed 36th at the WIAA Division 2 Girls State Cross Country meet Saturday in Wisconsin Rapids.

"I didn't feel as if it was my strongest race, but I was happy with the way the season ended," Carlson said.

She finished with a time of 20 minutes, 33.1 seconds.

Senior Kayci Martensen of Southwestern/Benton/Cuba City was the individual champion at 18:10.0. New Berlin Eisenhower's Faith Wehrman was second at 18:24.7. Northland Pines' Nora Gremban was third at 18:43.2.

The 2021 Middle Border All-Conference first team for volleyball had four repeat selections from the previous year.

Baldwin-Woodville's Anna Jordt was one of them.

The senior hitter was one of five Blackhawks who were named to conference teams. B-W finished 6-1 in
