Sports Complex while the Spartan football team hosted their annual Champions Camp for students with special needs.

The Spartans helped the campers run through multiple drills on the field, cheering them on the whole time. After having to reschedule multiple times due to poor weather, the turnout wasn't as big as hoped, but for the campers it was a night they won't soon forget.

Smiles were in full supply Monday, Oct. 11, at the NBC Spartan

County treasurer's office publishes delinquent tax list

By Melissa Pratt
Douglas County Administration

A list of 2018 delinquent taxes has been published by the county treasurer's office. This list can be viewed on the Douglas County website under the "News" tab.

The Douglas County Land Services Department has well tests available at a reduced price. The test will include bacteria, nitrates and a complete metals package.

This is a $120 test that will cost well owners only $20. You must be able to pick up a sample kit by Tuesday, Oct. 19, and return the sample on Oct. 25. To be placed on the list, you may fill your information out online at www.douglascountywi.org/welltesting or you may contact Cameron with land services at 715-395-7266.

The Douglas County Board has approved a tentative supervisory district plan. Comments can be submitted to Sue Sandvick, county clerk, at sue.sandvick@douglascountywi.org. The plan can be viewed on the Douglas County website under the "News" tab. It will be presented as the final plan at a public hearing to be held in November.

One meeting is on the calendar for next week: The Douglas County Board will meet on Thursday, Oct. 21 from 6-8 p.m. in room 201 of the Government Center.

For more information on meetings, agendas, or Douglas County, please visit our website, www.douglascountywi.org.

Community input and participation is always appreciated! If you have a suggestion or a comment, please contact me at 715-395-1429 or email Melissa.Pratt@douglascountywi.org. Make it a great week!
