

Celebrating Plover

Families enjoy the equipment at the park during Celebrate Plover on July 30 at Lake Pacawa Park in Plover. Katelyn Voorhies photos

The splash pad was a big hit in the beautiful summer weather during Celebrate Plover.

A little guy takes a hit while enjoying one of the inflatable games at the event.

Annalee, 8, takes the first turn before her brother in the course set up by ForeverFit, instructed by Kody Hill.

Jessica has her face painted to look like a cat at the event.

Festival goers explored the vendor products from arts to skin care to clothing.

K-9 Karma, with handler Jeremy Anderson, at the Plover Police Department booth.

The Drivers entertain at the bandshell.