

Athens Christmas concert

Pre-Kindergarten through fifth graders perform for large crowd

GETTING INTO THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT-Athens Elementary School second grader Egan Bingham sings "Deck the Halls," "I Have a Car," and "Go Tell It On The Mountain" with his classmates during Friday afternoon's Christmas concert in the high school gym.

A SWEET VOICE-Athens Elementary School first grader Maxim Blake sings on a microphone during Friday afternoon's Christmas concert in the high school gym.

MUST BE SANTA-Kindergartners carry on the tradition of singing "Must Be Santa" during Friday's Athens Elementary School Christmas concert. Pictured in the front row is student Rebekah Anderson opening her mouth wide to sing. Pictured in the back row, from left to right, are Madelyn Hanson and Brody Dassow.

OPENING UP HIS LUNGS TO SING-Athens Elementary School first grader Copper Spangler sings loudly during Friday afternoon's Christmas concert in the high school gym. Spangler and his first-grade classmates sang "North Winds Blow," "Santa's Helpers" and "Up on the Housetop."

THE REINDEER POKEY-Athens Elementary School pre-Kindergartners perform "The Reindeer Pokey" during Friday afternoon's Christmas concert in the high school gym. Students pictured, from left to right, front row: Korbin Kuck, Drake Heier, Jethro Blake, Caleb Hoffman and Patrick Stevens. Students fully seen in the back row, from left to right, are Easton Hanke and Reed Parkes.