WONEWOC-CENTER'S PLAYOFF PATH

WONEWOC-CENTER 3
WESTON 0

The Wolves' postseason path to sectionals began with a dominating 25-13, 25-8, 25-8 sweep of No. 8 seed Weston in the regional quarterfinals. Wonewoc-Center stat leaders included Kelsey Justman with 10 kills, Shelby Justman with 9 aces, Nicole Totzke with 2 blocks and Jaelyn Stowe with 26 assists.

In their two regular-season meetings during conference play, Wonewoc-Center defeated Hillsboro in four sets twice: 20-25, 25-12, 25-20, 25-19 in Wonewoc and 22-25, 25-22, 25-11, 25-19 in Hillsboro. Additionally, the Wolves downed the Tigers 25-20, 25-21 when the two squads met at a tournament in Sparta in September.

To get to the regional finals this year, Hillsboro swept No. 7 seed Brookwood 25-14, 25-22, 25-20 in the opening round and outlasted No. 3 seed De Soto 25-23, 27-25, 23-25, 25-22 in the regional semifinals.

Meanwhile, Wonewoc-Center gets to continue its magical season at sectionals, where the Wolves will face another familiar Scenic Bluffs foe.

Wonewoc-Center is all set to square off against fellow conference co-champion and No. 1 seed Bangor for a sectional semifinal showdown Thursday, October 28 at 7 p.m. at Independence High School.

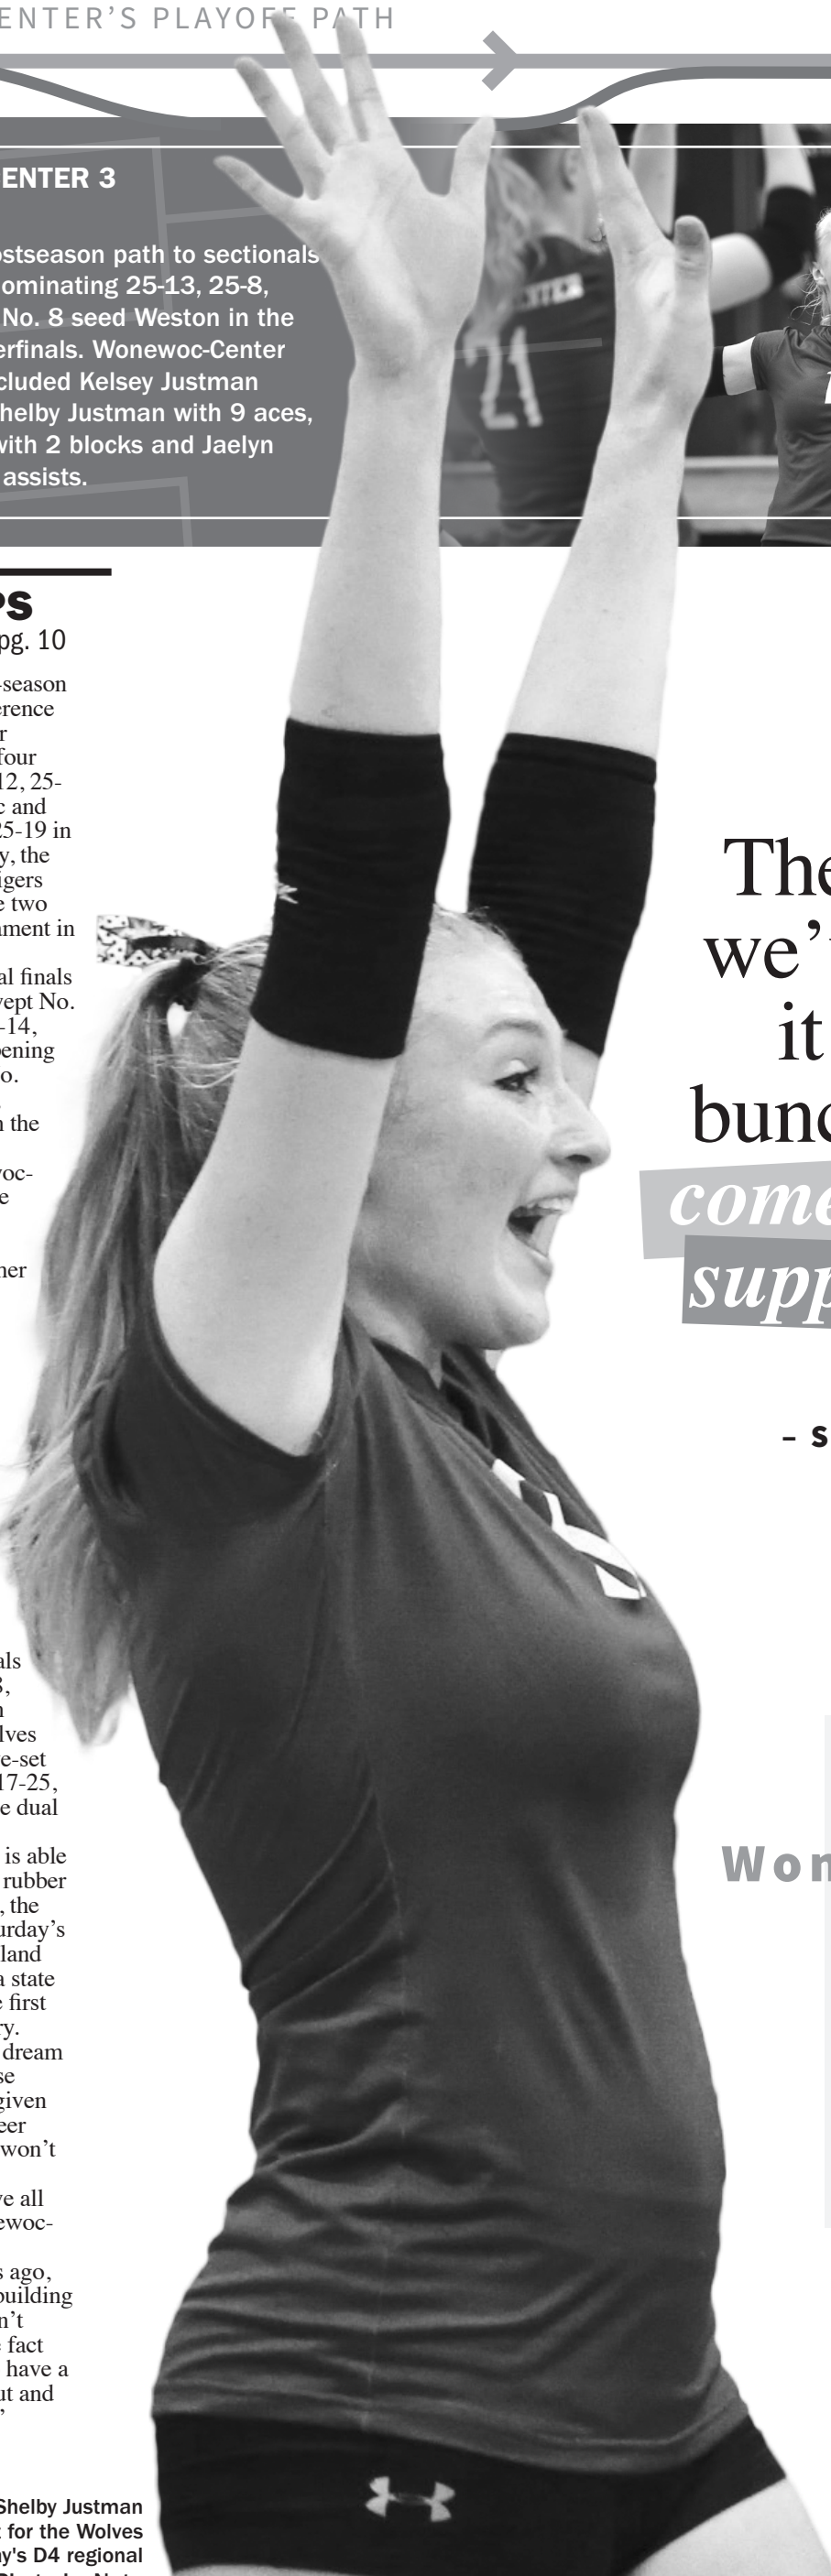

The two sides split their regular-season meetings. The Cardinals won in four sets 25-18, 21-25, 25-18, 25-20 in Wonewoc and the Wolves outlasted them in a five-set thriller 25-22, 23-25, 17-25, 25-23, 15-9 at a double dual in Hillsboro.

If Wonewoc-Center is able to take the postseason rubber match Thursday night, the team moves on to Saturday's sectional final in Highland for a shot at securing a state tournament bid for the first time in program history.

Whether or not that dream becomes a reality, these Wolves have already given their fans plenty to cheer about in a season that won't soon be forgotten.

"It's amazing to have all these fans," said Wonewoc-Center senior Shelby Justman. "A few years ago, when we were still rebuilding our program, they didn't have a lot of fans. The fact that we've rebuilt it to have a bunch of fans come out and support us is the best."

The fact that we've rebuilt it to have a bunch of fans come out and support us is the best.”
