Local Art at the Library: Sue Johnson and Paula Washow Hours Vary . Spring Green Community Library, 230 E. Monroe St., Spring Green . Throughout July, Sue Johnson is exhibiting her paintings in the Community Room Gallery and Paula Washow is exhibiting her assemblage sculpture in the Glass Case Gallery at the Spring Green Community Library during regular library hours: Monday-Thursday: 10 AM - 7 PM . Friday: 10 AM - 5 PM . Friday: 9 AM - 1 PM . "The origin of my eclectic art interests is the need for unnecessary pottery. Creating functional, utilitarian pieces of pottery is both practical and enjoyable. After my friends and family members' cupboards were full of bowls, cups, spoons, plates, teapots and vases; creative sculptures spoke to me. Sculptures allowed me the freedom to explore, design and express clay in a playful, creative way. Giving myself permission to create non-utilitarian art led to learning to make handmade paper from retired clothes/fabric in a Hollander mixer, which led to watercolor painting on the paper. The endless universe of creating art revealed itself."
