Oregon School District

Class of 2023 graduation is June 11

For a class that has grown up together in the Oregon School District - from Brooklyn, Fitchburg, and Oregon - and weathered the COVID shutdown - the Oregon High School Class has been through a lot together.

Their shared high school experience will culminate in commencement ceremonies set for 1 p.m. Sunday June 11 at the OHS gymnasium. This year's student speakers are Evan Miles, Peyton Yancey and Emma Pedersen.

In an email to the Observer, OHS principal

Jim Pliner wrote that this group of seniors is "one to follow in the future."

"I'm very proud of this group of graduates," he wrote. "They are a very high achieving group that is full of ambition and drive. Additionally, they are as kind as they are talented. They have left a mark on this community and certainly will continue to make a difference as they move forward."

Gracing the outside patio of the Oregon Culver's is the already iconic "Culver's Blue Spoon," created by Custom Metals of Madison. It's just one of the pieces featured in the Village of Oregon's new Art Sculpture Tour, which will be highlighted during the upcoming Oregon Art Fair on Saturday, June 10.

Board discusses adding 'streetlight user charge'

Village looking to raise revenues to balance budget

BY ALISYN AMANT
Observer correspondent

The Village of Oregon Board discussed a draft ordinance that would establish a streetlight user charge at their Monday, June 5, meeting, a continuation of conversations about how to battle budget shortfalls that began last fall.

Not guilty plea for alleged Rotary Trail attacker

Richard Cunningham, Jr., of Brooklyn faces three felonies

A Brooklyn man charged with sexually assaulting a woman on the Oregon Rotary Bike Trail in March had a not guilty plea entered on his behalf by a Dane County Circuit Court on Tuesday.

According to court records, Richard Cunningham, Jr., 42, waived the reading of information during his arraignment on Tuesday, May 30 and remained silent during the proceedings, so the court entered a plea of not guilty on his behalf.
