Pavilions in Marinette, including the Red Arrow Park pavilion shown here, cannot be rented more than a year in advance and standing reservations are not allowed. The organizer for the Menekaunee Old Timers Picnic thought she had a standing reservation for the pavilion, but a wedding is booked for the weekend she wants next summer.

MARINETTE — The 45th annual Menekaunee Old Timers Picnic will take place next summer.

But it doesn't appear it will be at the usual date and place: the last weekend in July at the Red Arrow Park pavilion.

Missing Miss America Marinette native who narrowly missed Atlantic City not just a runner up

CHRIS LEE
 For the EagleHerald

MARINETTE — In Dorothy Wescher's 1933 Marinette High School yearbook, "The Whipurnette," the inscription next to her senior portrait said she had a "weakness" for "winning beauty contests."

Above that, it said she hoped "to gain in everything."

She accomplished

both.

Dorothy was an ambitious, smart high school senior when in February 1933 she was among one of the first group of finalists selected for a well-publicized beauty competition for "A Century of Progress International Exposition," also known as the Chicago World's Fair.
