A WAVE OF PATRIOTISM

Harry Richards waves to the crowd just before being cleared to taxi down the tarmac.

Photos by Phil Kidd, Special to The Freeman

On Thursday morning at the Waukesha County Airport, eight Waukesha area veterans participated in the Dream Flights event. Each veteran flew with Dream Flights pilot Darryl Smith in a Boeing Stearman biplane, originally used to train World War II pilots. Capri Communities is a sponsor of Dream Flights, and each flyer was either a resident or an associate of Capri Communities. >> See more photos on Page 8A.
