LOVING EVERY MINUTE OF IT, the Crawford County Fair had it all this year, including bull riding on Sunday in the C Check Bucking Bulls Challenge of Champions. Rider Ty Sovo, upper right, was bucked off by a bull, named Killing Time, toward the end of the event. The carnival midway offered plenty for the young and young at heart. Two girls, upper left, took their aircraft for a spin, while Charissa and Jimmy Richter enjoyed their corn dogs. Farmer Bud TC, above-lower left, was ready to show a Jersey calf in the show Sunday morning. Tractor puller Eric Vesbach, above, competed in the 11,000# Altered Farm Division at the Tri-State Truck and Tractor Pull Friday night. The Gays Mills Fire Department, below left, defeated the Readstown Fire Department in a water fight Sunday. Firefighter Seamus Murray in the yellow helmet, at left, manned the hose for GMFD. A smiling Hen-nasey Swiggum, lower right, led her steer from the meat auction ring on Sunday. An unidentified demo derby driver, right, took advantage of a break in the action Saturday to sit atop his vehicle and survey some of the smoking wreckage that surrounded him.
