

Times welcomes new reporter

MONROE — The Monroe Times has welcomed a new reporter to its team. Shannon Rabotski joined the paper in June and is looking forward to returning to her cheese head roots to cover Green County.

Readers may recognize Rabotski from her column that reflected her year spent studying abroad in Germany she contributed to the Times shortly after her internship in 2018.

Rabotski is a Monroe native who graduated from Drake University in May with a major in news and a minor in German. She also had a concentration in Germany and the world.

When she's not at the office, Rabotski can be found walking, biking or jogging around town, but her favorite place to be is at home with her pets.

Contact Rabotski at srabotski@themonroetimes.com or 608-328-4202 ext. 13.

Rabotski