Seymour Source: Brand new newspaper for your area

Hello readers, please allow me to introduce to you the Seymour Source newspaper.

My name is Angie Griepentrog. My husband, Roger, and I currently own and run the Freedom Pursuit newspaper and another newspaper called the Lutheran Loop. We are not affiliated with any other newspapers. Freedom Publishing, Inc. is the name of our company.

Our newest publication has been named Seymour Source. You are looking at the first one.

Our goal with Seymour Source is to provide focused news, features, schools and sports coverage to the same land area as the Seymour school district. By sticking with our focus, Seymour gets more. This is the same thing that we already do for Freedom.

The Seymour Source will be its own publication, and it will also be inserted into the Freedom Pursuit. Once we start picking up Seymour Source subscribers, then they will receive the Seymour Source with the Freedom Pursuit inserted inside. Two separate papers all in one package.

Advertising and subscriptions pay the bills for our newspapers so that is something that will be necessary for our success. We believe more and more support will come to us once people see what we are offering. Local journalism takes a community to support it. We hope that is something you might consider doing with Seymour

Source by subscribing to it, placing your event advertisements or by running ads for your businesses. We believe that our prices are going to be more than competitive in the newspaper world. Check with us and find out!

The more advertising support we receive, the more pages we can provide. That's how it works. Take notice of our advertisers in this issue. They helped us get going.

On another note, please keep us in mind if you have any story ideas. We are interested in photos and stories about people from all age brackets. Let us know what is happening.

Also, give us a call if you have any questions about this new publication. We believe your community is going to be pleasantly surprised.

If you have any story ideas or interest in advertising, please email SeymourSource@yahoo.com or call 920-788-5859.

Support local journalism! Thank you. We look forward to highlighting your community. You support us, and we'll support you. We will see you around town, too.

Pursuit staying the same with Seymour Source included

If you bought this Freedom Pursuit, you will find that there is another newspaper inserted inside it. The Seymour Source is a brand new newspaper that we started.

We want to reassure you that the Freedom Pursuit is not changing.

If you received the Seymour Source and found this issue of the Freedom Pursuit inside, we want you to know that the Seymour Source is a brand new newspaper providing news, features, sports and school news in the same land area as the Seymour Community School District. The Seymour Source is separate from the Freedom Pursuit, but they are being mailed together. This brings our numbers up for both papers.

Advertisers can choose to be in one of our papers or both of them. Advertising is what supports your local coverage so it will be necessary for both papers to continue getting their own support. Subscribers are the other way newspapers survive, and so we hope that when you subscribe to either the Freedom Pursuit or the Seymour Source that you will also enjoy seeing the other paper as part of the package deal.

Our goal for both papers is to provide quality and focused coverage for the communities we serve.
