

The Denmark News Welcomes New Reporter

Patti Mulcahy has joined the Denmark News as a contributing writer. Patti grew up on a dairy farm in southwestern Wisconsin, but has lived in the Greenleaf/Denmark area for over 20 years.

Though she has had a variety of jobs over the years, including milking her own cows for a time, she grew up reading small-town newspapers and always hoped to become a writer one day.

She will cover news and events as well as spotlighting local businesses. In addition, she wants to feature articles on local residents and area history.

Do you have an idea for a story or know a local colorful character? Is there a topic you would like to know more about? Please feel free to contact Patti by email at patti@thedenmarknews.com
