Graves joins The Business News

Former Green Bay Press Times editor

Heather Graves has joined the The Business News as its new editor.

Graves brings to The Business News more than two decades of experience in journalism and editing.

She has a degree in mass communication with an emphasis in print journalism from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and has worked in the media field in a variety of capacities, including print journalism, broadcast journalism and public relations.

“I am incredibly excited to join The Business News team,” Graves said. “I look forward to bringing my more than 20 years of journalism and editing experience to this strongly-supported publication — continuing the pieces that already make it great, while adding things to further its strong mission.”

The Business News is a regional bi-weekly publication serving Northeast Wisconsin.
