Wisconsin Civics Games Editorial Writing and Cartoon Contest now accepting entries

WISCONSIN – The WNA Foundation has announced the fourth annual Editorial Writing and Cartoon Contest, which aims to increase civic education and engagement while celebrating the rights established by the First Amendment.

The contest is open to all Wisconsin middle and high school students, including home-schooled students.

Essays and cartoons should focus on the importance of the First Amendment. Students are encouraged to draw from personal experiences, current events and historical examples.

The deadline for submissions is 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4, and winners will be announced in early January.

First-place winners in each contest will receive $500, second-place winners will receive $250, third-place winners will receive $100 and honorable mention recipients will receive $50.

Winning entries also will be published by newspapers across the state.
